

BELOW AND BOTTOM LEFT
Caporale painted a portrait of her daughter, Avignon, as a demonstration for the workshop students.

BOTTOM RIGHT
A view of the studio Caporale shares with her husband, artist Daniel E. Greene. The building was originally constructed as a barn for dairy cattle.

